

Disability Studies Program and Department of History present

Jeffrey Brune

Assistant Professor of History,
Gallaudet University

Events are free and open to the public.
Refreshments provided.

Willard Suitcase Exhibit, Jan.-Mar. 2011

This event series provides forums for conversation about perspectives on past and present disability issues in the context of the exhibit in Odegaard Library.

For more about the series
“Unspeakable: Disability History, Identity, and Rights,” go to <http://uwdisability.wordpress.com>

Mon. Feb. 28, 12:00-1:00pm, Smith Hall 203E

*What Every Historian Should Know about Disability History
(and What They Lose by Ignoring the Field)*

Tues. Mar. 1, 6:00-7:30pm, Odegaard Library Room 220
Blind Like Me: John Howard Griffin, Disability, and the Fluidity of Identity in Modern America

“Unspeakable” series University of Washington Sponsors: Disability Studies Program; Department of History; Norris & Dorothy Haring Center for Applied Research & Training in Education; Program on Values in Society; Office of Minority Affairs & Diversity; Law, Societies & Justice Program; Department of Political Science; Harry Bridges Center for Labor Studies; Canadian Studies Center of the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies; Comparative History of Ideas Program; Bothell Interdisciplinary Arts & Sciences; Women Studies Department. Associated Students of the University of Washington Sponsors: Student Disability Commission; Gay Bisexual Lesbian Transgender Commission; Women’s Action Commission.

To request disability accommodation, contact the UW Disability Services Office: dso@uw.edu (email), 206-543-6450 (voice), 206-543-6452 (TTY), or 206-685-7264 (fax). UW is committed to providing access, equal opportunity, and reasonable accommodation.